

PORT LOUIS

The excursion will start in the morning with a tour in Port Louis to discover its local atmosphere and its main points of interest such as the Caudan Waterfront shopping center. Then, we will continue the tour with a visit to the market. Culture and gastronomy. You will discover the history of the island and its cultural specificities through a delicious cuisine, which is the pride of Mauritians. Admire the colonial architecture of the old buildings of the capital, let yourself be bewitched by the intoxicating perfumes of the spice street and explore the Chinese district, teeming with life. Your journey will be marked by a typical Mauritian lunch in the center of Chinatown, ending with the smooth Mauritian tea.

BOTANICAL GARDEN

In the afternoon will be devoted to the discovery of the Botanical Garden of Pamplemousses, a magical place that owes its origin to François Mahé de la Bourdonnais, the former owner. This garden contains priceless botanical treasures: spice tree, ebony, teak, mahogany, balsa, sugar cane, mango, mangosteen, date, nutmeg, etc.
